Humanitarian Expedition and The House of the Lord Tour

Cusco and Puno, Perú

Dec. 27, 2021
Jan. 4, 2022

Expedition Objectives & Preparation

This expedition is mostly tour and a little service. It is being sponsored by LDS Interest Tours of Southern Cross Expeditions. You will be taken to areas described in the book Willka Wasin Wiraqocha: The House of the Lord by Van Evans. We will also visit (and work at) for one day a Generations Humanitarian orphanage south of Cusco. The mission of Generations Humanitarian is to transform street children toward an abundance of health, hope, and loving homes—thereby breaking the cycle of scarcity for generations to come.

As an expedition participant, you are a contributing Citizen of the World and will see life from the Andean perspective. You will experience the joy of acquainting yourself with the humble Andean people and their Incan ancestry and history.

The peoples of pre-Colombian South America possessed a rich belief in a bearded white god who taught them how to live. They were deeply religious and exercised high levels of social capital. Whatever principles they originally received at the feet of the Savior Himself or His prophets, over time these underwent corruption and alteration as the people migrated and dwindled in unbelief. Yet today we see remnants of doctrines, ceremonies, culture, and temple ordinances in Andean countries that are familiar to Latter-day Saints. The focus of this tour is to notice and marvel at hermetic truths handed down through the ages that affirm our testimony that Jesus Christ visited and taught the peoples of ancient America.

LDS Interest Tours are open to the public, but will have special meaning to LDS members. Custom family and group tours can be arranged. After payment of your deposit, you will be emailed an electronic Expedition Handbook outlining necessary packing preparations including cultural information, travel documents, and project itineraries. Above all, each member of the group should psychologically prepare him- or her- self for the trip by agreeing to maintain a responsible attitude, reflecting at all times the highest moral character, and strive to be cooperative and friendly toward all members of the expedition.

Welcome aboard!

I understand that I am required to attend Briefing meetings, where locally possible, held by SCEXP Expedition Leader.
- 3. Requirements. I understand that I will not be able to participate in the Expedition until I submit the necessary forms, payments, passport copy, and other legal documentation required for travel by SCEXP due dates. These items are listed in the Expedition Handbook.
- 4. Risk. I understand that I am responsible for my own luggage, insurance claims, health, and belongings. While SCEXP goes to great lengths to insure my wellbeing, SCEXP is not responsible for the cost of my medical care or any theft, loss or damage I incur during or as a result of this expedition. I undertake this expedition at my own risk and will sign this disclaimer to that end.
- 5. Arrangements. To help facilitate the expedition, SCEXP may arrange for group travel, accommodations, and so forth. I understand that these services may be contracted with travel agencies, airlines, hotel chains, or other companies or individuals and that SCEXP is not responsible for their performance, security, safety or my satisfaction.
